Name: Date:
Historical Fiction
Postcards
Have you ever received or sent a postcard? For this project, ou'll write three postcards about your book to a friend or elative. You will choose an important person, character, and event to write about. In each postcard, you'll write both facts and opinions about your topic. Then you'll draw an illustration on the back of the postcard.	DUE DATES  Book approved  Book finished
three 5- by 8-inch unlined index cards (or heavy white paper cut to that size), markers or colored pencils	Project finished
DIRECTIONS
Find a book of historical fiction that interests you and is at an level for you. Have your book approved by your teacher.  Book Title:  Author:  Choose a topic for each of the three postcards. Your three top important person, place, and event from the story. List them be explain the significance of each. Then write the topics in the content of the	=

Name: D	Date:
---------	-------

Think of at least one fact and one opinion about each topic. List these in the chart below. If you need more room, create a similar chart on a separate sheet of paper.

FACT	OPINION
	FACT

- Decide whom you will write to on each postcard. You could write to the same friend or relative for all of them, or you could choose a different person for each one. Write a rough draft of your message for each postcard, incorporating the facts and opinions from the chart. Include any other information about the book that would interest your friend or relative.
- Revise your rough draft and then write your final draft on the cards. Don't forget to sign and address the postcards.
- On the back of each postcard, draw the person, place, or event that you wrote about. (First, sketch them in the boxes below.) Write the book title and author as well as your name.

	POSSIBLE
1) Was your book approved on time?	5	EARNED
2) Did you hand in your project on time?	10
3) Did you complete the chart?	10
14 Did you write a rough draft?	10
15. Did you revise your rough draft?	10
16 Did you include a fact and an opinion in each po	stcard? 15
7 Are your postcards well written and interesting?	2 15
3 Did you draw a picture on each postcard?	15
49). Are the spelling, punctuation, and grammar cor	rect? 10	